Dear Saints of the First Church,

Thank you so much for your cards, well wishes, and prayers for my recovery following my accident and resulting surgery in October. I'm on my way back, and I thank God for blessed healing and you for lifting my spirits.

Love to you all,
Kern Piser

Thank
you

FPC-N Weather Policy
For Inclement weather delays and closings

The guidelines below cover our policies for cancellations and delays on days when the weather could affect our services and activities.

1. When the Christina School District closes, or opens late, our campus will be closed until our parking lots, walks, and entrances are snow and ice free, and the roads are cleared and safe. Check the Church website or contact your group leader for confirmation.
2. When the state of Delaware declares a state of emergency and issues a travel ban for New Castle County, our campus will be closed while the travel emergency is in place, and until our parking lots, walks, and entrances are snow and ice free. Check the Church website or contact your group leader for confirmation.
3. If the weather conditions are determined to be unsafe to allow Sunday worship service, email notification will be sent to members and a notice will appear on the front page of the church website. Group Leaders and Directors should keep participants updated during questionable weather.

Please be sure to check your email, and check the website, www.firstpresnewark.org And Facebook page for updates. Questions? – contact the church office, or your group leader.
